

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Decree should be amended by adding thereto a paragraph 1a as follows:

"That the stockholders of the plaintiff irrigation company are entitled to use the water for the irrigation of not more than 454 acres during the irrigation season, and not more than 280 acres during the time between October 20th and April 20th. That the livestock watering rights of the plaintiff and its stockholders are hereby limited to 547 head of livestock during the irrigation season from the natural channel of the Fairfield Spring and 597 livestock during the non-irrigation season. That is, between August 20th and the following April 20th, and that the connections to the pipeline are limited to the 16 existing connections and the 7 additional connections for which the right to connect exists, but as to which no present connection has been made."

Dated this 26th day of July, 1965.

BY THE COURT

1st Joseph E. Nelson
JOSEPH E. NELSON
District Judge